WHO ARE WE?

St. Paul's is a theologically diverse community seeking to embrace their diversity in order to live through the Gospel of Jesus Christ and be a place of learning and belonging for all people.

Summer Worship Hours Now through September 6th

Sundays at 10:00 a.m. & 5:00 p.m.
Thursday Healing Service at 6:00 p.m.

From the Pile on Fr. Kirk's Desk...

It's time again for a
Rector's Book Study.

The book is Searching for Sunday by Rachel Held Evans.

This book is for both longtime Episcopalians and for those who are new and exploring the Episcopal Church.

Like millions of people, Rachel Held Evans didn't want to go to church anymore. The hypocrisy, the politics, the scandals--church culture seemed so far removed from Jesus. Yet, despite her cynicism and misgivings, something kept drawing her back to Church. And so she set out on a journey to understand Church and to find her place in it.

Centered around seven sacraments, Evans' offers a refreshed perspective about baptism, communion, confirmation, confession, marriage, vocation, and death that are funny, heartbreaking, and sharply honest.

This study will be held on Wednesdays at 6:00 p.m., beginning June 17th.

Senior Warden's Report

June 2015

Summer Worship has started. The 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. services will be combined to one service at 10 a.m. It is always nice to worship as a full community, and something I look forward to every year. We get to see faces that we don't see often. Also, for some of us, Summer Worship is an opportunity to become familiar with the prayer book again. Summer worship ends Labor Day. I am excited to say that, since Easter we have had many new folks join us! Welcome! Please be sure to say 'hello' to someone you don't recognize, even if you have seen them during Worship before. You may not be familiar with all the faces; this is a great time to get know all that worship at St. Paul's.

Monthly Receipt Summary

St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Sparks
Funding the Mission
June 2015

For the 2015 year, our pledges and expected plate income is expected to be $212,756, and should average $4,091 per week from those sources.

3-May	$5,015.00	10-May	$4,128.00
17-May	$1,981.00	24-May	$2,059.00
		Online	$3,703.00
Monthly Total			$16,886.00

For this 4 week period, our budget target was (4 x $4,091) $16,364 so we are $522 over our expectation for this period, and $504 under for the year.

The monthly Financial Statement of Mission contains detail on all our financial activity, and is posted in the narthex. You can direct questions to any Vestry member, Dick Stufflebeam, or Patti Stine. (Email:dick@stpaulsspark.org)

AN IMPORTANT NOTE: By all your gifts, we are blessed. For your gifts we are grateful.

Good Gardening!

The Vegi garden is ready to be planted for this year. We have Padron Peppers; Moscvich, Green and Cherokee Purple tomatoes and Lemon Cucumbers to plant. Chard and Kale and other greens will also go in.

Last year we installed 5 beds thanks to several volunteers and harvested a lot of cabbage, kale and tomatoes and onions with a lot of small gourds (for fun). All the vegis's harvested went to those at St Paul's who were in need of greens. We fixed the water pipe in the wall which was leaking and did some other minor work.

This year we need to change out the water hose that didn't work well last year, plus change the compost pile to inside the fence to continue building the soil. We want to start herbs that do well in this climate, such as oregano, thyme and sage.

We are asking for volunteers to maintain the garden, water the seedlings, and weed the pesky cotton wood trees. Come join us. See Mike Margerum or Sherryl Netzler for details. Thanks.

Pinterest Interest Group

Come join us in the parish hall on the first Monday of the month at 6:00 p.m. for food, fellowship, and fun crafts! (July 6) Here's how it works: someone brings dinner, someone else brings dessert and someone brings the craft. Call Barbara Monroy at 742-4856 or follow this link to let us know if you are coming and bring your best Pinterest idea.

Eco-palians

At church one day I opened a bottle of water; it tasted awful! When I looked at the label it had “calcium chloride, sodium bicarbonate, and magnesium sulfate” in it. Later, I took a look at other water bottles and found these ingredients: potassium bicarbonate; calcium chloride; sodium bicarbonate; magnesium chloride; potassium chloride; and salt. One bottle I checked had no additional ingredients listed. These ingredients will probably not harm you. They could possibly be added to city water, but I do not want to drink anything with these added ingredients. Be sure to check the label before buying water. Drink tap water! It is cheaper and it tastes like water!

Youth Group: EYC

EYC is an Episcopal Youth Community where all youth (and their friends) grades 6-12 are invited to come and participate. The focus will be different each week, but you can count on whatever the EYC is doing it will stimulate our growth with God and with each other, and our growth in serving Christ in the world. We invite you to come join us for food, fellowship and fun!

The Wesley Bell Ringers

The Wesley Bell Ringers, a handbell choir from Salt Lake City, Utah, will perform at St. Paul's on Saturday, July 18, 2015 at 7:30 PM. The concert will be the first concert on the choir's 50th annual concert tour, and will feature 27 teenaged ringers playing more than 225 hand bells and hand chimes.

In 1963, The Wesley Bell Ringers, a music ministry of Christ United Methodist Church in Salt Lake City, began with 9 youth ringers and 25 bells. Fast forward 52 years; the 27 current ringers are the most recent of the 469 youth who have participated in the choir. Over the years, the choir developed a reputation for musical excellence that continues to open doors to exciting opportunities.

The previous 49 summer tours have taken the choir to all 50 states and most of the Canadian provinces. They have performed at the US Capitol, Cathedral of the Pines National Monument, Mt. Rushmore, Disneyland and Disneyworld. The choir has participated, as the featured choir, at numerous handbell festivals around the United States, and performed for The National Music Educators convention. Performances with The Mormon Tabernacle Choir and The Utah Symphony Orchestra have been repeated honors over the choir's history.

The 2015 concert includes the music of Bach, Andrew Lloyd Webber's "Phantom of the Opera", and Disney's "The Little Mermaid". The choir will also play the music of many of the finest arrangers and composers in the world of handbells.

Admission to the concert is free, but a free will offering will be collected.

If you would like to learn more about the choir and hear their music, visit their webpage at www.wesleybells.org

We Are Thankful...

Therefore let us be grateful for receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and thus let us offer to God acceptable worship, with reverence and awe. Hebrews 12:28

Watch this space in the Epistle each month for stories of gratitude and belonging. This month we are very thankful that Patricia Unruh shared part of her story with us.

How long have you attended St. Paul's?

I started to attend St. Paul's two years ago.

What about St. Paul's makes it a church home for you?

I come from a Southern Baptist background, but many of my experiences of attending church with the Metropolitan Community Church, which was a church established for the LGBT community, made me familiar with a liturgical style of service. I feel more comfortable with this service style of worship and soon found myself wanting and needing to become more involved. The generosity and encouragement from people at St. Paul's have made this possible for me.

How have you experienced God's generosity in your life?

I have experienced God's generosity many times. It has come from healing on a physical, emotional and spiritual level. Five years ago I was diagnosed with a lung disease. I was highly allergic to the medications normally used to try to treat the disease. My doctor did not know if I would recover. I found myself on oxygen, 25 different medications daily, in a wheel chair and having home health care provided for me. I developed a sleep disorder much like Narcolepsy. I was very ill. Here I am though, walking around and living independently.

What is the one thing about St. Paul's you are most thankful for?

Transportation! Without the community of St. Paul's I would not be able to attend services or become involved in any of the activities and ministries that we have to offer.

Please share a favorite story about your time at St. Paul's and or tell a little bit about one of your favorite church activities.

My favorite activity occurs on Thursday afternoons. I love Lectio Divina. I have formed a close bond with everyone who attends. Spending time weekly, reading the Gospel and listening to others struggle with their daily walk with Christ, has helped me to reflect on my life, how I read scripture and apply it to myself daily. Thank you to all who come.

Peace and hugs to everyone at St. Paul's. I am truly blessed. Patricia

St. Paul's Prayers & Squares

The "Prayers and Squares" ministry is a special "outreach" tool to share the love of Christ. The quilts bring a tangible example of the love we all share with those who are suffering in body, mind or spirit. You do not have to know how to sew, or like to sew, but can also just join us for the fellowship we all share.

We meet on the second Saturday of each month in the Parish Hall from 9 A.M. to noon.

We gladly receive donations of materials, thread, etc. and cash to purchase necessary supplies.

If you would like to join us, or if you would like to request a quilt for someone, please contact Victoria Sidener 322-2375.

Bishop Dan's 15th EPISTLE TO THE NEVADANS

AIN'T NOBODY HAVING FUN!

What God Asks Of Us:

This message is simple to understand but hard to practice. Jesus is quite clear and emphatic about the attitude Christians are to take to one another.

Do not judge others lest ye be judged yourselves. For the same judgment you impose on others will be imposed on you, and by the same measure of judgment you use, you will be measured. Matthew 7: 1-2

Parish Potluck: June 28th

Don't forget the end of the month Potluck after the morning Service on June 28 at 11:15. Bring something yummy to share!

Whoever is angry with his brother shall be guilty before the court. Whoever says 'you good for nothing' shall be guilty before the supreme court. Whoever says 'you fool' shall be guilty enough to go to the fiery hell. Matthew 5: 22-23

Bless those who curse you. Pray for those who mistreat you. Luke 6: 28.

A new commandment I give you. Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. John 13: 34-35

Paul continues Jesus' theme.

In humility, consider others better than yourself.

The Mandatum, the Great Commandment given by Jesus at the last supper is to love one another as he loves us. The point is simple, and so obvious that I risk boring you by emphasizing it so emphatically and often.

But here's the thing: mutual vilification is par for the course in our Church. I do not mean that we just disagree with each other. I do not mean that we just maintain a realistic awareness of each other's foibles. I mean vilification. I mean I hear our people, lay and clergy alike, characterizing each other in the harshest condemning tones.

I hear not-so-subtle negativity about Latinos from the lips of English speakers. I hear homophobic pathologizing of LGBTQ people by straight people. I hear introverts interpret extroverts as shallow, narcissistic, and entitled. I hear extroverts interpret introverts as cold and arrogant. Rural condemns urban. East condemns west. Clergy and laity critique each other. And we find plenty of individual failings without regard to categories. People who want power accuse others of having more of it than they do. We speak rather harshly of one another - a lot. Our Church, in its fallen humanity, has at times engaged in orgies of mutual vilification. The vilifications and anathemas then declared linger still.

My personal point: I need to say this is painful to me - personally painful - because people I like and care for and respect - my people - trash other people I like and care for and respect - also my people. As this Epistle comes from my own frustration, it is apt to be a bit of a rant. But St. Paul ranted on occasion, so I shall pray that this too may be a sanctified rant.

Why God Asks It:

Our Happiness: Like any parent, God's first concern is our well-being. The attitude of judging and condemning others does not make us happy. It cuts us off. It alienates us from the network of life and blessing. Yes, we need to be connected even to flawed and problematic people in order to flourish spiritually and emotionally. Flawed as they are, they are the human network. God created that very network and redeemed in the Incarnation. Please note these words of Blessed Ignatius Loyola.

God has so ordained to sanctify us through the frail instrumentality of each other.

This is important!

God has so ordained to sanctify us through the frail instrumentality of each other.

We cannot be sanctified on our own. We need each other. It is not only that we are blessed by each other's virtues, but also that we are challenged by each other's vices. We need both their virtues and their vices so that we can grow in grace and wisdom. We cannot draw closer to God than we are to each other.

Anyone who says he loves God but hates his brother is a liar; for how can he love God whom he has not seen and hate his brother whom he has seen. 1 John 4: 20.

Our happiness now and in the hereafter depends on our spiritual discipline of loving other people in their quirky and sometimes irritating natures.

Second, if we construct in our hearts a good vs. bad, right vs. wrong, win vs. lose model of reality, we know very well that we will stand condemned ourselves.

Do not judge others lest ye be judged yourselves. For the same judgment you impose on others will be imposed on you, and by the same measure of judgment you use, you will be measured. Matthew 7: 1-2

If being acceptable (lovable) depends on meeting some standard, it is likely to be a standard I do not meet. How can I even be sure I know the right standard? In order to create and uphold a standard by which I condemn others I put myself at risk. I consign myself to jeopardy.

God's Happiness: Very simply, it hurts God to see us condemning his people. I say this in sympathy with God. I have met hundreds and hundreds of Nevada church folks. And I have not met one yet who is not a child of God. I have not met one yet for whose sins Jesus did not die. I do not claim to know much about God. But I am as sure of this as anything: We wound God by our judgments of each other.

After Saul (later, Paul) had participated in the stoning of Steven, the Lord Jesus appeared to him on the Damascus Road and said, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" Acts 9: 4 "Me!" Paul thought he was stoning Stephen, but he discovered he had stoned God. The Compassion of the Eternal Son means that God feels our wounds as deeply as we do. So when we condemn one another, wound one another, we condemn and wound God.

When Jesus says "Love one another" and "Stop judging one another," he is asking, "Have I not been crucified enough?" "Why do you persecute me?"

The Kingdom Mission: We have a job to do. It is important. Here's the situation. Since way back there - maybe it was with the domestication of the horse (Walter Wink) or the invention of agriculture (Karen Armstrong) - for a long time and for one reason or another, the world has been "in enemy hands." (C. S. Lewis). The Domination System has run the human race with oppressive power driven by fear and greed. Ain't nobody having fun - least of all the fearful, avaricious people who are oppressing and hurting others. Pharaoh was not a happy man.

God is against this. He has been telling us that since he said to Moses, "I have heard my people's cry . . . Tell Pharaoh to let my people go." Friends, we are Moses.

Jesus' mission was to turn the world upside down by subverting the Domination System with the Kingdom of God - not with another regime of dominating power but rather a reign of justice, mercy, and forgiveness. When Jesus healed, forgave, and reconciled, he said, "The Kingdom of God has come near." e.g. Luke 10: 9

The Kingdom Mission is all-important for how we treat and regard one another. It matters in two ways:

1. Squabbling is a distraction from the mission. If we are focused on the mission we won't be so interested in what is wrong with someone else. If we are squabbling, we are not working for the Mission.

2. How we treat each other is an integral practice for ushering in the Kingdom. Our compassion and forbearance, our mercy and appreciation, disrupt the network of fear, anger, and dominating power. Wearing a cross or even belonging to a Church does not prove one is a Christian. What proves that one is Christian? "They will know you are my disciples by how you love one another." John 13: 35.

As I said, "Ain't nobody having fun" under The Domination System - including us. Joy resides in God's Kingdom, the one we pray for every day. "Your Kingdom come, your will be done." Working for the Kingdom with love and forbearance, patience and delight, appreciation and mutual blessing is the path to our own deepest happiness.

Conclusion: Our happiness, the world's happiness, and God's happiness all turn on our capacity to break free from the world's pattern of judgment and condemnation. Those are the tools of The Domination System. "The Lord has torn up the judgments against you." Zephaniah 3: 15. Those were the world's judgments, The Domination System's Judgments. God sees us through entirely different eyes, eyes that appreciate and laugh. Whenever we look at each other through God's eyes, the Kingdom happens here and now.

My hope and my prayer is that when we will learn the real meaning of the exchange the peace on Sunday mornings. We are not just greeting people we are happy to see. The person whose hand we take symbolically represents our enemy, who may or may not be physically in the room. We exchange the peace as a ritual act to lay down our grudges and break free from the prison of mutual vilification in order to truly become the Body of Christ in a broken world. My hope and my prayer is that we mean it.

Blessing Always,

Bishop Dan

Happy
Father's Day
